

COLOR ME HEALTHY COPYRIGHT GUIDELINES

Clip Art

The clip art provided on your Color Me Healthy Training CD is for use with the Color Me Healthy program only. It may not be used in or with any other program.

Logo

The Color Me Healthy Logo may be used on any training or promotional materials for Color Me Healthy but may not be altered in any way. The Color Me Healthy images and logo are copyrighted by North Carolina State University.

Promotional Materials

In any materials you create to promote Color Me Healthy, please state that the program was developed in North Carolina by NC Cooperative Extension and NC Division of Public Health. Your logo may be used on Color Me Healthy promotional materials.

Kits

Color Me Healthy kits cannot be sold or copied (with the exception of the Color Me Healthy Parent Newsletters that are designed to be copied and distributed to parents).

Web Mounting of Curriculum Components

You may not mount any portion of the Color Me Healthy Kit to the web. The Color Me Healthy Parent Newsletters in English and Spanish are available at www.colormehealthy.com. You are welcome to link to our site.

Awards

All national award applications for Color Me Healthy must originate from North Carolina. Award application for state awards must involve the North Carolina team. We will assist you in preparing award applications.

Articles

The North Carolina Color Me Healthy Team has published several journal articles about Color Me Healthy (see www.colormehealthy.com). Any article submitted to a professional journal or similar publication must involve the North Carolina team. If you are interested in publishing an article about Color Me Healthy contact Carolyn_Dunn@ncsu.edu.

